REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF THE TRANSACTIONS

The product that the Company subscribed under the Structured Deposit Product Agreement is fully principal-guaranteed and with minimal risks involved which would be able to generate better returns than the fixed-term deposits generally offered by PRC commercial banks. The Directors believe that the transaction contemplated thereunder will improve the utilization of idle funds and generate better returns for the Group. Accordingly, the Directors (including the independent non-executive Directors) are of the view that the terms of the Structured Deposit Product Agreement was arrived at after the arm's length negotiation and the transaction contemplated thereunder are on normal commercial terms which are fair and reasonable and in the interests of the Group and the Shareholders as a whole.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATIONS

As the highest of the applicable percentage ratios calculated according to Rule 14.07 of the Listing Rules in respect of the Structured Deposit Product Agreement exceeds 5% but all of the applicable percentage ratios are less than 25%, the transaction contemplated under the Structured Deposit Product Agreement constitutes discloseable transaction for the Company and therefore subject to reporting and announcement requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules. As at the date of this announcement, the Company does not hold any structured deposit products and all structured deposit products previously invested have been redeemed.
